

Description:

The blue circle indicates the newly inserted node.

The gray circle indicates the node being deleted.

The yellow circle indicates the node before being moved.

The red circle indicates the node after being moved.

The light green circle indicates the node before being modified.

The dark green circle indicates the node after modification.

Description:

The blue circle indicates the newly inserted node.

The gray circle indicates the node being deleted.

The yellow circle indicates the node before being moved.

The red circle indicates the node after being moved.

The light green circle indicates the node before being modified.

The dark green circle indicates the node after modification.